

It is important that KLove radio retains a powerful signal as it provides a positive and encouraging message. Many people in this area rely on KLove as the main radio station they listen to. North Dakota is a sparsely populated state and it takes a powerful signal to reach people. Please help keep KLove's signal strong.